

The U.S. Department of State
cordially invites you to a Consultation with Representatives of the U.S. Government, U.S. Federally Recognized Tribes, and other U.S. Indigenous Peoples' Organizations

Discussion topics will include reform of the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (EMRIP); enhanced participation of indigenous peoples in the UN; repatriation of cultural items; climate change and Arctic-related topics; and other subjects of interest.

Date: Thursday, February 25, 2016
Time: 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
Location: Capital Hilton Hotel, Room Federal B
1001 16th Street, N.W.; Washington, D.C. 20036

We ask that representatives of U.S. federally recognized tribes sit in the front rows of the room. For seating purposes, on the sign-in sheet attendees should indicate whether or not they are a representative of a federally recognized tribe.

Attendees can submit questions or comments they wish make during the consultation beforehand to LumLL@state.gov by Thursday, February 18. One is not required to submit questions beforehand to speak at the consultation.

THIS INVITATION IS TRANSFERABLE.
