USET RESOLUTION 94-25-DC

WHEREAS, other USET Tribes have been discriminated against by policy and where policy is detrimental to Indian Tribes, this policy should be waived; and

WHEREAS, the Secretary of Interior, the Assistant Secretary of Interior for Indian Affairs, and the Solicitor's Office for Indian Affairs should immediately make policy decisions on those cases currently before them that have caused hardship on USET Tribes; and

WHEREAS, policies cannot be made solely for the purposes of suppressing Indian tribal governments, especially by those Trustees of the United States Government having the responsibility of carrying out the highest degree of Trust fiduciary responsibility for the Tribes.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Indian tribes of USET immediately receive the necessary waivers, certifications, and/or transfers of fee land into trust identified by the respective Tribes; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that discriminating policies currently being applied to the USET Tribes in complete disregard to the mission of the Department of Interior and Bureau of Indian Affairs Trust fiduciary responsibility be resolved in favor of the Tribes; and
