

American Rescue Plan (ARP) Resources for Native Americans

Child Tax Credit (CTC)

- Description: The ARP Child Tax Credit provides eligible families $3,000 a year for each child between 6 and 17, and $3,600 per year for each child aged 5 and under. Families making less than $75,000 a year will receive the full payment, with the payments gradually diminishing for families making up to $240,000 a year. Half of the CTC will be paid out in monthly payments and the other half will be paid out when families file their 2021 tax returns.
- How to Apply:
 - If you have filed a tax return or received a stimulus check, you will automatically receive the payments.
 - However, you can also apply for the CTC without filing a tax return by filling out a “non-filer” form.
 - Those with at least one qualifying child and earning less than $24,800 a year as a married couple, $18,650 as a head-of-household, or $12,400 as single-filer can apply by using the IRS non-filer sign-up tool (linked below).
 - You can also register for your EIP payment (described below) through this form.
- Deadline: Rolling – the first payments went out on July 15, 2021. Apply now!

Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC)

- Description: The ARP Earned Income Tax Credit extension raises the maximum EITC for low to moderate income workers without children from roughly $540 to $1,500 and raises the qualifying income cap to $21,000. It also expands the age range of eligible workers to include younger adults aged 19-24 and older adults aged 65 and over.
- How to Apply:
 - To claim the EITC you must file a tax return, even if you are not required to file.
 - If you have a qualifying child, you must file the Schedule EIC listing the children with either the Form 1040A or the Form 1040.
 - If you do not have a qualifying child, you can use the Form 1040EZ.
 - To assist you, there are free and virtual tax preparation services offered through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance \(VITA\) program.
- Deadline: You can e-file your 2020 tax return with no late filing penalties before October 15, 2021.
- Website: <https://www.benefits.gov/benefit/939>

Economic Impact Payments (EIP)

- Description: The ARP Economic Impact Payments began rolling out in March 2021 and consist of direct payments of $1,400 per single individual or $2,800 for a married couple. Singles making $75,000 or less, heads-of-household making $112,500 or less, and married couples making $150,000 or less will receive the full payments, with the payments gradually diminishing thereafter.
- How to Apply:
 - If you have filed a tax return, you will automatically receive the payment the same way you receive your tax refund (direct deposit, check, pre-paid card).
 - If you already receive federal benefits, you will also receive the payment the same way.
 - However, if you don't typically file a tax return because your income is below tax-filing thresholds, you have two options:
 - Use the IRS non-filer sign-up tool (linked below). You can also register for your Child Tax Credit through this form.
 - File a late 2020 tax return. You will face no late filing penalties if you have no balance due to the IRS. The "Recovery Rebate Credit" on Line 30 on the IRS Form 1040 is where you can claim any EIP you are eligible for but have not yet received. To assist you, there are free and virtual tax preparation services offered through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance \(VITA\) program.
- Deadline: Rolling – Apply now!

Emergency Broadband Benefit Program (EBB Program)

- Description: The ARP Emergency Broadband Benefit Program provides a temporary discount on monthly broadband bills for qualifying low-income households. Eligible households can receive up to $75/month to discount broadband service and associated equipment rentals if your household is on qualifying Tribal lands and a one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, tablet, or desktop computer (with a copayment between $10-$50). Only one EBB Program enrollment per household. Eligibility guidelines can be found HERE.
- How to Apply:

- Eligible households must both apply for the program and contact a participating provider to select a service plan. There are three ways to apply:
 1. Contact a participating broadband provider directly to learn about their application process. If you are unable to apply through them directly, you will have to apply using option 2 or 3 below, and then contact a participating provider to select an eligible plan.
 2. Go to GetEmergencyBroadband.org to apply online and to find participating providers near you. After you apply, you will have to contact a participating provider to select an eligible plan.
 3. Call 833-511-0311 for a mail-in application or print a copy, and return it along with copies of documents showing proof of eligibility to:
 - Emergency Broadband Support Center
P.O. Box 7081
London, KY 40742
- For Options 2 and 3: After you received a notice that you have qualified for the program, households must contact a participating provider to select an Emergency Broadband Benefit eligible service plan.
- Deadline: The program will end when it runs out of money or six months after the Department of Health and Human Services declares an end to the COVID-19 health emergency, whichever is sooner.
- Website: <https://www.fcc.gov/broadbandbenefit>

Emergency Rental Assistance (ERA)

- Description: The ARP Emergency Rental Assistance program allows local programs to cover rent, utilities, and home energy costs. This includes electricity, gas, fuel oil, water and sewer, and trash removal. If your landlord normally pays for utilities or home energy costs, these are counted as part of your rent. Rental assistance can also cover reasonable late fees, internet service to your home, and moving expense and other rental-related fees (security deposits, application fees, etc.) for families who have to move. Eligibility is based on experiencing COVID-19 hardship (like loss of income or employment, or owing a large expense), housing instability, and income level. More information on eligibility can be found HERE.
- How to Apply:
 - To apply visit the CFPB's Find Rental Assistance Programs Tool and search for your tribe or tribally designated housing authority. Tribal citizens may also access state programs.
 - Follow the link for your local ERA program and fill out the required application.

- You can initiate the application and, in some cases, your landlord may have already applied and you will need to complete your portion of the application.
- In some areas, you can receive the rental assistance directly, while in others payments go directly to the landlord.
- If you cannot find a program in your area, call 2-1-1 or your local housing authority for assistance.
- When applying, you will need to demonstrate that your income is eligible (ex. Unemployment benefits document, pay stubs, a statement from your employer) and that you're experiencing housing instability (ex. Past due utility or rent bill or eviction notice, proof that you live in unsafe or unhealthy living conditions).
- Note: In some states and cities, tenants are protected by an eviction moratorium or a rental assistance application can halt an eviction case. Check with your local legal aid office for information.
- Deadline: Rolling – Apply now!
- Website: Program website varies by location. Use the CFPB Tool to find a link for your local program.
- Questions about how to get ERA?: Contact your local program or housing authority.

Homeowner Assistance Fund (HAF)

- Description: The ARP Homeowner Assistance Fund will provide financial assistance for qualified expenses to homeowners who have experienced financial hardship and with incomes equal to or less than 150 percent of the area median income for their household size or 100 percent of the median income for the United States, whichever is greater. Qualified expenses include mortgage delinquencies, defaults, foreclosures, loss of utilities or home energy services, and displacement.
- How to Apply:
 - HAF is accessed through Tribal and local programs.
 - HAF funds have not yet been fully distributed to administering programs but once opened, eligible Tribal citizens may apply for their tribe or tribally designated housing authorities' program or a local program.
- Deadline: TBD
- Website: <https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/coronavirus/assistance-for-state-local-and-tribal-governments/homeowner-assistance-fund>

Economic Development Administration (EDA) Indigenous Communities Program

- Description: Through the Indigenous Communities program, the EDA is allocating $100 million in American Rescue Plan funding specifically for Indigenous communities, which were disproportionately impacted by the pandemic. This program is designed to support the needs of Tribal Governments and Indigenous communities. EDA will support these important partners to develop and execute economic development projects that they need to recover from the pandemic and build economies for the future. A wide range of technical, planning, workforce development, entrepreneurship, and public works and infrastructure projects are eligible for funding under this program.

- How to Apply:
 - Through grants.gov Notice of Funding Opportunity.
- Deadline: Rolling. While EDA encourages eligible applicants to submit their applications as soon as possible, EDA strongly advises eligible applicants to submit complete applications at least by March 31, 2022 so that EDA can review and process the application in time to get a potential award in place prior to deadlines imposed by Congress. Submission by March 31, 2022 is not a guarantee of funding.
- Website: <https://eda.gov/arpa/indigenous/>
- Questions about Indigenous Communities Program: Email your questions about the American Rescue Plan Indigenous Communities program to Indigenous@eda.gov Please visit www.eda.gov/contact to find contact information for your Economic Development Representative.

 Note Indigenous communities are also eligible and encouraged to apply under all of EDA's American Rescue Plan funding opportunities. Under the American Rescue Plan, EDA was allocated $3 billion in supplemental funding to assist communities nationwide in their efforts to build back better by accelerating the economic recovery from the coronavirus pandemic and building local economies that will be resilient to future economic shocks.
