April 3 Press Release: HUD MAKES \$200 MILLION OF COVID-19 RELIEF FUNDING AVAILABLE TO HELP NATIVE AMERICAN COMMUNITIES ACROSS THE NATION - Recovery funding will help American Indian Communities respond to COVID-19

- HUD: COMING SOON

The US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) expects to release new funding as non-competitive “imminent threat” grants similar to the existing “imminent threat” ICDBG program that has operated with $4-5 million annually. From HUD’s most recent FAQ: The $100 million included for the ICDBG program can be used for emergencies that constitute imminent threat to health and safety. Funding is intended for activities and projects designed to prevent, prepare for, and respond to COVID-19.

HUD intends to publish an Implementation Notice in the very near future that provides Tribal Nations and TDHEs with guidance on how to apply for this funding, and will issue waivers and alternative requirements of statutory and regulatory provisions to facilitate the use of these funds to help address COVID-19.
