Under Executive Order 13175, “Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments,” the Institute of Museum and Library Services (“IMLS”) aims to respect Indian Tribal self-government and sovereignty, honor Tribal treaties and other rights, and meet the responsibilities that arise from the unique legal relationship between the Federal Government and Tribal Governments. Because duly-elected Tribal officials, or their designee, trigger the government-to-government relationship with the United States, formal administrative requirements under the Federal Advisory Committee Act do not apply (FACA; 5 U.S.C. Appendix – Federal Advisory Committee Act; 86 Stat. 770, as amended).
