

2021 DOI Listening Session

Tribal Youth & Climate

Join us for this interactive session on October 13th 3:00-5:00pm EST

Open to Tribal youth (middle school through college age)

How is climate change impacting your Tribal nation, your community?

What types of projects would make a difference in your Tribal community to help with these climate change impacts?

How can you help connect people of all generations to work together to solve community problems with honor & respect for the land and environment?

Can't make the live session?

You may submit responses to the docket www.regulations.gov, enter "DOI-2021-0010" in the search bar, and click "Search" to find the notice. Direct inquiries regarding session to: Tribal.Climate@bia.gov

This session is the first of three Tribal Climate Listening Sessions. Visit our website for more information on the series.

For registration & updates, please check our website for updates

<https://www.bia.gov/bia/ots/tribal-climate-resilience-program>

Bureau of Indian Affairs Tribal Climate Resilience Program