

KRISA M. JOHNSON

Krisa M. Johnson is the Director of the Office of Loan Guarantee in the Office of Native American Programs for the Department of Housing and Urban Development located in Washington, D.C. Krisa has been with the Office of Native American Programs at HUD since 2009. She has worked with the Section 184 Indian Home Loan Guarantee Program and the Office of Grants Evaluation in ONAP. Krisa also worked in the Office Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity at HUD.

With extensive experience the primary and secondary mortgage markets, Krisa has expertise in risk management, financial analysis, operations, marketing and outreach. Krisa currently manages national program operations for the Section 184 Indian Housing Loan Guarantee program, the Title VI Loan Guarantee program and the 184A Native Hawaiian Loan Guarantee program. Other areas of responsibility include regulation and policy development. Ms. Johnson strives to provide the best customer experience possible as she shares her knowledge and expertise with lenders, Tribes, Tribally Designated Housing Entities and tribal members.

Chung-yiu “Andrew” Lee is a Senior Policy Advisor to the Director of the Office of Loan Guarantee in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development’s (HUD’s) Office of Native American Programs (ONAP). Prior to joining ONAP, Andrew worked in HUD’s Office of General Counsel where he provided legal advice on various programs, including the Section 184 Indian Home Loan Guarantee program, the Section 184A Native Hawaiian Housing Loan Guarantee program, and the Federal Housing Administration’s Single-Family Mortgage programs. Prior to joining HUD, Andrew worked as a legal services attorney, specializing in landlord-tenant law involving low-income housing tenants and federally subsidized rental assistance programs. Andrew received a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from the University of Rochester and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Deana O'Hara is the Senior Advisor to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for the Office Native American Programs (ONAP) at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Deana, who has been in this position since 2005, works closely with the Deputy Assistant Secretary on developing ONAP policy and programs. She is widely known as the architect of the Tribal HUD-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing program, which she helped to create in partnership with staff from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. Before joining HUD, she held senior administration and policy positions at the Illinois Housing Development Authority and the Chicago Housing Authority. Deana received a Master of Public Administration degree and a Bachelor of Arts degree from The George Washington University.