

Sergeant Floyd Poncho

Floyd Poncho joined the US Army in January 1967 and trained as an Information Operation and Intelligence Specialist at Ft. Polk, Louisiana and completed Advanced Individual Training at Ft. Gordon, Georgia. He completed Advanced Infantry Training and Airborne School at Fort Benning, Georgia. He deployed to Vietnam at Pan Rang and joined his unit 101st Airborne Division at Da Lat in November 1967 where he was assigned as a member of the historic Long Range Reconnaissance Patrol (LRRPs). He completed his service to our country with the famed 82nd Airborne Division (All Americans) at Ft. Bragg, North Carolina.

Mr. Poncho is a distinguished member of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Tribe of Texas who served as an elected Tribal Council member. He was a housing professional for the AC Indian Housing Authority for many years and also served as an independent contractor. He has over 25 grandkids most of whom adopted him as poppa and he attends their functions faithfully. During his retirement years, he was called into service by the Tribal Council as a commissioner for the Alabama-Coushatta gaming enterprise. He is the Lt. Commander of the Alabama-Coushatta Veterans Association.

Aalilamoolo
THANK YOU

