United South and Eastern Tribes Scholarship Fund Policies and Procedures

Article I. Statement of Purpose

The primary purpose of the United South and Eastern Tribes Scholarship Fund is to establish a resource for providing financial aid scholarships to assist eligible enrolled members of Tribal Nations established as members of United South and Eastern Tribes in securing educational opportunities.

Article II. Funding

Section 2.01 Fundraisers for the United South and Eastern Tribes (USET) Scholarship Fund are the responsibility of the USET Education Committee. From time to time USET may also hold fundraisers and proceeds shall be added to the USET Scholarship Fund account.

- During the Annual Board of Directors Meeting the host member Tribal Nation has historically held a golf fundraising effort for the scholarship fund. When this occurs proceeds will be added to the USET Scholarship Fund.
- During the Annual USET/USET SPF Impact Week Meeting, the USET Education Committee, working in partnership with USET, is responsible for any scholarship fundraising efforts.
- On occasion, as opportunities present itself, USET may also hold fundraisers for the USET Scholarship Fund and proceeds will go to the USET Scholarship Fund.

Section 2.02 Tribal Nations, Individuals, and/or Corporations may contribute directly to the USET Scholarship Fund account.

Section 2.03 The USET Controller will invest funds into a portfolio with the assistance of an investment advisor. The goal is to continue to preserve the principal to allow the account to grow.- The investment vehicle of choice for the scholarship fund will be mutual funds. USET will use mutual funds that reflect goals of endowments of similar size and scope. The funds chosen will be well diversified to include equity investments, fixed income strategies as well as alternative strategies to reduce volatility. The USET Controller, along with an investment advisor, will choose the appropriate mutual fund or funds for the USET Scholarship Fund Account and shall issue a report annually to the USET Education Committee using the investment cover page as the said report on the performance and balance of the scholarship investment.

Article III. Eligibility

Section 3.01 Applicants must be enrolled members of Tribal Nations established as members of the United South and Eastern Tribes, Inc.

Article IV. Scholarships

Section 4.01 The USET Education Committee shall select scholarship recipients once a year during the USET/USET SPF Impact Week Meeting.

Section 4.02 Awards will be competitive in nature. Should there be more scholarship requests than available funds, the USET Education Committee will make awards based upon application score ranking.

Section 4.03 Annual awards are subject to availability of funds.

Section 4.04 The USET Education Committee shall base the annual dollar amount of scholarships to be awarded for that year on the following criteria;

(a) Availability of funds is calculated as 80% of any contributions and donations received during the year. Any gain on Investment will remain in the scholarship account and will not be used to fund scholarships in any given year. Annual dollar contributions timeframe will be defined as the time period from one Impact Week until the next Impact Week.

(b) In the event that fundraising contributions for the 12-month period as set forth in Section 4.04 (a) do not exceed $2,000.00 the Education Committee has the discretion to award a total of up to $5,000 from the Investment Fund for the award year, using the criteria set forth in section 4.05.

Section 4.05 The USET Education Committee will award all selected undergraduate applicants an equal amount in any award period, in increments of no less than $750. In addition, the USET Education Committee will award all selected graduate applicants an equal amount in any award period, in increments of no less than $1,000. In the event the total available amount is calculated and is determined to be less than needed to fill the scholarships at the prescribed undergraduate/graduate levels, they will be awarded in increments of no less than $500; subject to the availability of funds.

Section 4.06 In the event no applicants are received during an award period, available funds will remain in the Scholarship Fund Investment Account.
