

THE PRESIDENT
OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

15 August 2017

Excellency,

Further to my letter dated 10 August and following the passing of the silence procedure, I have the honor to forward herewith the final draft resolution entitled “Enhancing the Participation of Indigenous Peoples’ Representatives and Institutions in Meetings of Relevant United Nations Bodies on Issues Affecting Them”.

The General Assembly will take action on the draft resolution on Friday, 8 September 2017. Member States are advised to consult the UN Journal for further updates.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

DRAFT RESOLUTION ON ENHANCING THE PARTICIPATION OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' REPRESENTATIVES AND INSTITUTIONS IN MEETINGS OF RELEVANT UNITED NATIONS BODIES ON ISSUES AFFECTING THEM

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming the purposes and principles contained in the Charter of the United Nations,

Reaffirming the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the solemn commitment to respect, promote and advance and in no way diminish the rights of Indigenous Peoples and to uphold the principles of the Declaration,

Reaffirming the Outcome document of the high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly known as the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples and recalling its decision by which member states committed to consider ways to enable the participation of Indigenous Peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them,

Recalling its resolution 70/232 of 23 December 2015 in which it requested the President of the General Assembly to conduct consultations with Member States, Indigenous Peoples' representatives and institutions from all regions of the world, and existing relevant mechanisms of the United Nations, on the possible measures necessary to enable the participation of Indigenous Peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them, and also requested the President to prepare a compilation of the views presented during the consultations, including good practices within the United Nations regarding Indigenous Peoples' participation, which will form the basis for a draft text to be finalized and adopted by the General Assembly during its seventy-first session,

Further recalling other relevant General Assembly and Human Rights Council¹ resolutions,

Recognizing the need to find ways and means of promoting the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions within the United Nations system on issues affecting them and that they are not always organized as non-governmental organizations,

Emphasizing that the modalities of participation by Indigenous Peoples in the work of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, the Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples and the Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples shall continue undiminished,

1 Takes note with appreciation of the compilation of views on possible measures necessary to enable the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in relevant United Nations meetings on issues affecting them, and of good practices within the United Nations regarding indigenous peoples' participation² transmitted by the President of the General Assembly as a basis for a draft text to be finalized and adopted by the General Assembly during its seventy-first session;

¹ In particular A/HRC/RES/18/8 and A/HRC/RES/21/24

² A/70/990

2 Welcomes the constructive and open informal dialogue between Member States and Indigenous Peoples on the possible measures necessary to enhance the participation of Indigenous Peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them during its seventieth and seventy-first sessions;

3 Encourages the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples in promoting the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples to continue addressing enhanced participation of Indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions at the United Nations on issues affecting them;

4 Encourages further efforts to facilitate the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them in accordance with their respective existing rules of procedure, inter alia, through the inclusion of Indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in modalities for relevant conferences, summits and other meetings convened by the United Nations on issues affecting them, in accordance with the relevant decisions established by the appropriate body or organisation for those meetings;

5 Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly by the end of its seventy-fourth session on achievements, analysis and concrete recommendations on the possible further measures necessary to enable the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them, building on the report of the Secretary-General on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them³, the report on the progress made in the implementation of the outcome document of the high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly known as the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples⁴ and the compilation of views on possible measures necessary to enable the participation of Indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in relevant United Nations meetings on issues affecting them, and of good practices within the United Nations regarding Indigenous peoples' participation⁵ as well as the informal discussions undertaken during the seventy-first session as reflected in the correspondence of the President of the General Assembly:

6 Requests the Secretary-General, including with the support of Members States, to seek input from Indigenous Peoples from all regions of the world in preparation for the report and in this regard, also encourages the Secretary-General to hold regional consultations, including through the regional commissions, as appropriate, with the support of the Member States, relevant UN agencies and entities, before the nineteenth session of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues and request the Secretary General to incorporate these inputs into the report mentioned in the preceding paragraph;

7 Decides to continue consideration of possible further measures necessary to enhance the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in relevant United Nations meetings on issues affecting them at its seventy-fifth session, taking into account achievements in other bodies and organisations throughout the United Nations system, and with preceding consultations with

Indigenous Peoples' representatives and institutions from all regions of the world as an input to the intergovernmental process;

8 Requests the President of the General Assembly, as part of the preparatory process for the consideration during the seventy-fifth session, to organize and preside over informal interactive hearings and to prepare a summary of each hearing, during the seventy-second, the seventy-third and the seventy-fourth sessions of the General Assembly, on the sidelines of the Permanent Forum on indigenous Issues, with Indigenous Peoples, ensuring, to the extent possible, balanced regional representation;

9 Decides to expand the mandate of the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples so that it can assist representatives of indigenous peoples' organizations and institutions to participate in the hearings organized by the President of the General Assembly as requested by this resolution, ensuring, to the extent possible, balanced regional representation;

10 Urges Governments and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to continue to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples.
