

RCAC Career Opportunities Available Lending and Housing Director or Lending Director and Housing Director positions.

Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC), a Rural LISC Strategic Partner, provides training, technical and financial resources and advocacy so rural communities can realize their goals and visions, and become vibrant, healthy and enduring places. RCAC works in rural and Native communities across 13 western states. We deliver a broad range of community development services, including support to rural water and wastewater utilities, rural housing development and program assistance, and support in leadership and economic development. In addition, the RCAC loan fund finances community and economic development efforts.

Michael Carroll has been the Director of Lending and Housing for the past four years, and was the Director of Lending for five years before that; he participated on the Senior Leadership Team as well. He has accepted another position, and we are looking to either fill his current position or to hire two directors to replace him. Visit www.rcac.org/careers to learn more about these positions and how to apply.

Loan Fund Director. The Loan Fund Director will oversee and direct RCAC's Loan Fund in its mission to provide low-cost financing for affordable housing and other rural development projects. Major responsibilities include, but are not limited to: originating loans; managing lending programs, activities and staff; developing new lending and other financing products or programs; serving as the CEO's liaison to the Board loan committee; coordinating and communication with individual clients or networks of clients and funding sources; participating in strategic planning, program development, and marketing RCAC programs, products and services; participating in establishing major economic objectives and policies for RCAC.

RCAC is an equal opportunity employer and considers all employees and job applicants without regards to race, religion, color, gender, age, sex, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity, marital status, or any other status protected by law. RCAC strives to reflect the diverse constituencies that the organization serves. West Sacramento is the preferred location for all of these positions, however, other locations within RCAC's 13- state service area will be considered.

#####

ABOUT LISC

With residents and partners, LISC forges resilient and inclusive communities of opportunity across America – great places to live, work, visit, do business and raise families. Since 1980, LISC has invested $17.3 billion to build or rehab 366,000 affordable homes and apartments and develop 61 million square feet of retail, community and educational space across the country. For more, visit www.lisc.org

ABOUT RURAL LISC

Launched in 1995, Rural LISC is the rural component of the largest community development support organization in the country, called LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation). For 22 years, Rural LISC has partnered with rural communities, helping to forge innovative solutions that lead to prosperity and opportunity. Rural LISC's investments in rural America have totaled $1.14 billion in grants and low-cost loan funds. Rural LISC has leveraged this investment resulting in $2.8 billion from public and private sources, to produce 31,500 affordable homes and apartments, create 3.8 million square feet of commercial and community space, assist 600 businesses, create 6,800 jobs and support 20 early childhood centers. By generating resources and investing in the grassroots efforts of its 81 partner community-based organizations, Rural LISC is committed to making rural communities good places to live, work, do business and raise children. Learn more at www.lisc.org/rural