

INDIAN TAX EXTENDERS INCLUDED IN THE BUDGET

Indian Tax Extenders Would Apply Towards 2017 Tax Filings

This morning, the President signed H.R. 1892 "The Bi-Partisan Budget Act of 2018" in to law. Included in the budget are the Indian Tax Extenders, which expired on December 31, 2016. The extenders are designed to incentivize direct investment in projects on Indian lands and

Resources:

Full Text of H.R. 1892

Indian employment Tax Credit

Accelerated depreciation for the hiring of Indian people. The extenders retroactively extend for a one-year period through 2017.

- Sections 40312 and 40301: Extension of Indian employment tax credit
- Sections 40312 and 40306: Extension of accelerated depreciation for business property on an Indian reservation
- Section 40408: Extension of production credit for Indian coal facilities

business property on an Indian reservation

Production credit for Indian coal facilities

NAFOA Manager of Corporate Relations Job Description

For questions or comments please contact Jennifer Parisien at Jennifer@nafoa.org or (202) 558-8040.

---

NAFOA is Hiring a Manager of Corporate Relationships

NAFOA seeks a motivated Manager of Corporate Relationships to develop and sustain meaningful engagement strategies with our corporate partners. Under the direction of the Executive Director, the Manager of Corporate Relationships is responsible for implementing strategies for identifying, cultivating, and stewarding corporate financial support and donor prospects, as well as coordinating appropriate stakeholder participation through policy, conferences, events, and training programs.

Learn More

For more questions please contact info@nafoa.org.

---

Connect with us

