Subject: Save the Date: 2/20/18 -- Informational Webinar for Tribal Governments and Staff on Direction and Progress as Agencies Consider Revisions to Definition of WOTUS

Dear Tribal Partner:

The Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of the Army (“the agencies”) are inviting tribal governments and tribal staff to a webinar to discuss our direction and progress as we consider revising the definition of “Waters of the United States” (WOTUS). This webinar is limited to tribes or tribal staff.

The webinar will be held Tuesday, February 20, from 2:00-3:15 p.m. EST. Please save the date.

Registration information will follow by the week of February 5; all participants must register by February 16.

At this webinar, the agencies will share information on:

- 1) Progress on WOTUS rulemaking efforts
- 2) Baseline information being collected to inform the economic analysis and technical support document (methodology and, where possible, draft results)
- 3) Initial high-level policy direction

There will be an opportunity for questions and answers following the presentation.

Please email CWAwotus@epa.gov by February 9, 2018, if captioning or special accommodations are needed.
